Economic/financial results

As described above in the APM section, EXOR applies a shortened consolidation criterion to facilitate the analy
Using the shortened consolidation criterion rather than the line-by-line method of consolidation required by law
The following table shows the shortened consolidation area:

Companies in the Holdings System consolidated line-by-line Investments in operating subsidiaries and associates, accounted for using the equity method idation.

The principal exchange rates used to translate other currencies into Euro are as follows:

EXOR closed the year 2018 with a consolidated profit of €1,347 million; the year 2017 ended with a consolidate
The consolidated net financial position of the Holdings System at 31 December 2018 is a negative €3,255 millio
At 31 December 2018 the consolidated equity attributable to owners of the parent amounts to €12,210 million w
Following the retrospective adoption on 1 January 2018 of IFRS 9 ? Financial Instruments and IFRS 15 ?Rever EXOR has not restated consolidated shortened data as a result of the adoption of IFRS 9 and IFRS 15, but has
The shortened consolidated income statement and statement of financial position and notes on the most releva

Periodi correlati:

- FY 2017