

(34.72% of issued capital, 20% of voting rights)

The key consolidated figures of The Economist Group reported for the first nine months of the financial year 20

Half 1
Revenue
Operating profit
Net debt
Net assets

For a correct interpretation of the data it should be noted that the financial year of The Economist Group does not
The Economist Group's net revenues in the first half 2016 are up 2% (£11.3 million) from the same period last Headline operating profit decreased by 32% (£8.0 million) in the first half. However the results are still distorted
Net debt was £75.3 million higher than at September 2015 largely as a result of borrowings taken out to partly f
The increase in negative equity attributable to owners the parent is largely due to the buyback. Additionally the

Result by division
The Economist Businesses
The Economist Intelligence Unit
News Ventures

The Economist Businesses continued the decline of advertising: across the Group, for both print and digital con

Half 1
Revenue
Operating profit
Grossing profit

Operating profit for The Economist Businesses was £8.3million lower caused by the ongoing decline in high ma
Business outlook
Market conditions in the US are still difficult and might remain so. The Group expects to reach the year-end with

Periodi correlati:
FY 2015

