Interim data cannot be construed as representing the basis for a full-year projection. For a correct interpretation of the figures it should be noted that the financial year of Juventus does not coincide with the calendar year. The economic trend is characterized by a strong seasonal nature, typical of the sector, basically determined by the timing of player registrations. The financial position and cash flows of the company are also affected by the seasonal nature of the income from player registrations. The first half of the 2017/2018 financial year closed with a profit of €43.3 million, posting a negative change of €10.7 million in shareholders' equity. This change was mainly due to lower revenues from players' registration rights, totaling €45 million, higher costs of player registrations, and higher depreciation of intangible assets. Significant events in the first half of 2017 and subsequent events: In July 2017 Juventus transferred its offices to the new headquarters of Via Druento 175 in Turin and took possession of the new stadium. These sites, along with the international school, which began operation in September 2017, are part of the large investment program. 2018 Outlook: The 2017/2018 financial year of Juventus, currently forecast to end in a loss, will be as usual strongly influenced by the timing of player registrations.
