

Printer-friendly PDF

Ferrari

Ferrari

(22.91% stake and 32.75% of voting rights on issued capital)

Key consolidated data of Ferrari reported in the year 2018 are as follows:

Change
Units (in units)

Revenues

Adjusted EBIT

Adjusted EPS

Shipments

Year

Change

APAC

Net revenues

Revenues in Cars and spare parts

The erosion in Engines revenues

Sponsorship, commercial and brand revenues

Change at

EBIT

EBIT for 2018

The positive volume impact

Net industrial debt

Net industrial debt at 31 December 2018

Adjusted debt

Adjusted cash equivalents

2019 Outlook

Ferrari Group is expecting the following performance in 2019:

Net revenues: more than €3.5 billion, over 3% growth compared to 2018

Adjusted EBITDA: €1.2 billion ? €1.25 billion, approximately 10% growth compared to 2018

Adjusted EBIT: €0.85 billion ? €0.9 billion, approximately 6% growth compared to 2018

Adjusted diluted EPS: €3.50 ? €3.70 per share, approximately 6% growth compared to 2018

Industrial free cash flow: approximately €0.45 billion, over 10% growth compared to 2018

Periodi correlati:

FY 2017